ABOUT:

eLynxx Software for Sourcing and Managing Print

eLynxx print procurement software is built for custom print, not general procurement. The software embraces the complexities of sourcing and managing direct mail, marketing, brochures, POP, signage, wraps, publications, packaging and custom print. It eliminates frustration, energizes collaboration and puts you in complete control of print supply chain management.

You can achieve per-unit cost savings of up to 40%.

Built for Better Results, Lower Costs

eLynxx improves marketing ROI by increasing coverage at lower spend. It relieves your people of spreadsheet and email headaches. eLynxx strengthens your process and improves financial oversight. Its features out-pace ordinary procurement tools. You will assure quality, drive initiative compliance and manage mutually-beneficial relationships with your vendors to achieve better results.

eLynxx users enjoy per-unit printed marketing material savings of up to 40% and increase operational efficiency by up to 53%.

Cloud Software Works Anywhere

eLynxx is solid and secure with 99.999% uptime. There is nothing to install, nothing to back up and no infrastructure to build or maintain. It tucks nicely within ERPs like SAP and Oracle as well as creative agency platforms and general procurement software like Ariba.

- eLynxx works on Chrome, Firefox, Internet Explorer, Safari and Opera
- eLynxx works on Windows, Mac or Linux computers
- eLynxx works on iOS and Android tablets and smartphones

Not a Broker, BPO or Printer

eLynxx Solutions is not a broker, business process outsourcer (BPO) or printer. We do not stand between buyers and vendors. Rather, we offer powerful, easy to use software to empower your organization - pure and simple. eLynxx software enables marketing to keep projects on-spec and on-time. It allows purchasing to automate procurement tasks. It gives finance transparency and reporting. It helps the c-suite promote cost and operational efficiencies.

Strong, Experienced and Trusted

We value friendships and build partnerships based on honesty, transparency and accountability. Successful, satisfied clients drive our innovations. The savings clients enjoy on their print projects overwhelmingly offset the subscription price that includes our exclusive sourcing method.

eLynxx Solutions has been trusted with over 3 million print projects valued at over $9 billion. Our exclusive method has been recognized with the award of five United States Patents.
